Ranga Rao. The Links there are very nice.

M. A. Narayanayyangar has a great scheme for inducing the Ryots to subscribe to the War Loan. The idea is to give them "interest Coupons" when Coupons may be paid in as land Revenue. The idea is quite sound but it needs regular "propaganda" as the Ryots are suspicious ignorant and look askance at any scheme for getting money out of them. As a matter of fact every Ryot will gain 6¼% on the transaction there will be no loss & cost: as whatever we lose in actual Cash, in the Land Revenue side, will be compensated

My dear Meiyappa.

I send for the Enclosure. You will remember that the list was sent up for H.H.'s approval that H.H. agreed to the inclusion of my name, but evidently there has been some misunderstanding my usual luck. Why should a man like Plumer be exempted if Sam not, not to speak of other Judges & Members of Council who are my juniors in rank.

Balasundram tells me that my name was not mentioned in the papers recently back from the Palace. I hope you will kindly put matters right about my consolidated pay orders have been issued & Balasundaram talks of a reference to the Resident being necessary. Now people cut my pay without a reference to anybody, but when it comes to paying out the Assistant has decided to be very careful due, they plead inability without Mr Resident's orders. It is all very sickening & literally takes the heart out of me. I am going to see Mr Resident today about Pattabhi & other matters, including "Surplus Revenues of Bangalore" I am afraid the Collr is a rather hopeless business as they have got Mr Secretary of State's sanction to retain their reserve fund for local expenditure. What price Mr Montagu as a friend of mine now? I am afraid my belief in him is not capacity is completely shattered. My daughter has been really seedy these few days - she has no appetite, but I hope Dr Carey Evans treatment will do her good. I have seen that Persian Carpet of Major Carey Evans. It really is very beautiful & well worth £300. However you must see it when you come in & then decide whether to buy it. I have been golfing at the Cantonment Club with P. R. Rao, Balasundaram
